THE READJUSTERS' CONVENTION .- The

Convention of readjusters will assemble at 12 o'clock to-day at Mozart Hall. It was claimed last night that sixty delegates, in addition to members of the Legislature who are delegates, were in the city. Senator Fulkerson will call the Convenion to order.

Delegate B. W. Lacy will be temporary chairman. It is expected-but is not here announced s certain-that General Mahone will be one of the speakers. The platform which will be adopted if the "stalwarts" prevail will favor a continued obligation of the debt question; an appeal from the General Assembly to the people if the McCulloch bill is passed (as it will be), and the seeking of final remedy against the bondholders in a constitutional

Young Men's Christian Association MEETINGS AT THE SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH. The large audience-room was crowded vesterday evening (lower floor and galleries). and the meeting one of the best yet held. Rev. Dr. Read conducted the meeting in his usually happy style. He made an admirable address, in which he spoke of Christians drawing near to each other by drawing nigh to Christ. He made the point that no one should take another's experience as an infallible model for his own, and argued to show that there will be some diversity in experience, but that all have the same germ of reverence for God's Word, repentance towards God, and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. · He especially urged and illustrated the point that the young convert is merely a babe in Christ," and must not expect the experience of the full-grown man and woman in Christ. Rev. Dr. Edwards earnestly and forcibly irged that we should thank God if we have even a little religion, and strive to get more. He eloquently urged that those who are entertaining even a feeble hope should cherish and rejoice in that.

Rev. S. C. Clopton, Rev. W. N. Scott, Dr. J. E. Edwards, and Dr. Dickinson led in ning on Wednesday night. prayer, and the large number of special requests sent up were remembered. Rev. S. C. Clopton will conduct the meetng this evening from 5 to 6 o'clock.

the meeting brighter than ever.

LENT SERVICES IN THE EPISCOPAL AND CATHOLIC CHURCHES .- There will be service in all the Episcopal churches to-morrow Ash-Wednesday) at 11 A. M. At St. Mark's there will also be morning prayer at 7 o'clock, and at night at 7:45 o'clock, in addition to the 11 o'clock service. The united meetings of the congregations will be continued this year according to the arrangement existing for a long time-St. Mark's, Monday; Grace, Tuesday; Monumental, Wednesday; St. John's, Thursday;

St. James, Friday. Hour of united services. 5 P. M. During Lent the customary night services for that season will be held at St. Peter's Cathedral at 7 o'clock, at which Right Rev. Bishop Keane will deliver a course of sermons, commencing with Faith and its Effects. The special services for colored people will be changed from Sunday to Tuesday a large and deeply-interested congregation with this act are hereby repealed. evenings at 8 o'clock.

At present rate of progress the General Assembly will not be able to finish its work by the 4th of March, when the pay stops. The more precious time becomes, the more of it is wasted in speeches repeating facts and fancies, which were old when the session began.

THE COLORED CONGRESSMAN'S VISIT AND LECTURE.-Hon. R. H. Cain, M. C. (colored), arrived in this city yesterday from Washington. He was met at the depôt by the Attucks Guard and State Guard and escorted to the Maison Doree, where he made a short address, thanking the military and others for the cordial reception extended to him. Last night be lectured at the Third-Street Methodist church (colored); after which he was handsomely entertained by those having the affair in charge.

FIRE YESTERDAY MORNING .- Yesterday morning at 8:20 an alarm of fire was sounded from Station 21, corner Twenty-fifth and Venable streets, caused by the partial burning of the roof of Mr. Daoney Baker's residence, No. 2238 Venable street. Loss, $50; no insurance. There was no city water in the neighborhood, and, consequently, the wells in the vicinity had to be resorted to, and they were soon exhausted. The fire originated from chimney-sparks.

the feeders were on the streets discussing their situation, and they all have unanimously agreed not to work for the wages offered them. The nailers are still at work feeding their own machines, and have not yet taken any action in regard to the reduction in their wages. It is hoped that a compromise will soon be made, as many of our citizens are employed at these works, and even a brief idleness on their part will be detrimental to the trade of many of our merchants.

A Narrow Escape. - Sunday afternoon about 5 o'clock, as several Chesterfield hoys were boat-racing, about two miles below Whitby, one of the boats, whilst going at a rapid rate, ran upon a rock near the shore and sprang a leak. The boat sank before the occupants could manage to reach the shore. One of them, James Wilkinson, being unable to swim, sank once or twice before he was rescued by the boys from the other boats, who fortunately were left behind in the race. He was taken to the house of Mr. Robert Lewis, near by, in an unconscious condition, but by proper remedies was restored in a short while, and carried to his home, a few miles off.
